Editor's Desk

I am extremely happy in bringing out January 2020 issue of our University. In this issue, International Conference on "Empowering Society through Holistic Approach in Higher Education" occupies prime stage. The other programmes in this month are Kavalan App, Republic Day Parade, Road Safety Awareness, and Martyr's Day.

The International conference has recommended that skill building towards holistic education should be achieved through comprehensive and inclusive incorporation of physical, social, cultural and emotional aspects of teaching and learning. This was felt as immediate need of the 21st century in preparing teachers for social change.

Boomi Pooja was performed for additional building in the faculty building under PMMMNMTT scheme. Kavalan App awareness was to educate the school girl children about safety. Republic day parade was colourful followed by cultural programmes. Road safety programme was organized to give awareness about road safety rules to school students. Martyr's Day was observed in the university campus. I take immense pleasure in recording all the above mentioned activities of our university in the month of January 2020. Due to our Honourable Vice-chancellor's strenuous efforts our campus is seen abuzz with a lot of activities. More is expected in the February issue.
