Emotional Intelligence: Understanding Human Relations – 22.09.2020

Emotional Intelligence (EI)

Relationship management: (social skill) is our ability to apply emotional understanding in our dealings with others.

This is where emotional intelligence becomes most visible to the people we deal with (putting EI to work).

It includes the ability to develop relationships, build rapport (trust).

It's the culmination of the other 3 dimensions of EI.

Emotional Intelligence (EI)

- Emotional Intelligence, or EI, is the ability to identify, assess, and manage the emotions of one's self, and of others.

- In other words, it is a distinct combination of emotional and social skills and competencies that influence our overall capability to cope effectively with demands and pressures of work and life.

- Emotional Quotient, is how one measures Emotional Intelligence
