FROM EDITOR'S DESK

In the month of July our Teaching Faculty and Non-teaching Staff Members of our University were busy like bee in collecting relevant data and documents to apply for NAAC with patience and all motivation. Our Honourable Vice Chancellor gave his fullest support with lot of enthusiasm to proceed this work. The Registrar of TNTEU also renders his optimum support and guidance in this regard. The IQAC Director, Prof. S. Mani and Deputy Director, Dr. U. Pandian took up strenuous efforts to bring the experts from various Institutions to give clarity about the all the Criteria and how to collect the appropriate documents. Prof. M.Soundararajan, Professor and Head, Department of Value Education was elevated to the position of Dean of Faculty of TNTEU. The exam section was busy in doing spade work to conduct Online practical examination and valuation for B.Ed. and M.Ed., Programme, under the guidance of Prof. M.Govindan, Controller of Examinations. All teaching faculties also took classes for M.Ed., and M.Phil. Students without any flaw. Many Programmes were organized by Department of Value Education, Department of Pedagogical Sciences, Centre for Civil Service Coaching and TNPSC Coaching, Department of Educational Psychology, Department of Educational Planning and Administration Department, Centre for Capacity Building Programmes for School Teachers and NSS Unit of our esteemed University.

The Programmes organised were useful to rekindle the minds of the students of Education and to the society at large. The scholars of our University were also doing research with much enthusiasm. Good number of Ph.D. Viva-voce examinations were conducted through Online mode. I request the students' community of our University also to contribute short write up, poems, puzzles and their achievements to this News Letter. I wish that we all work together to take our university to reach the pinnacle of achievements.
